Purpose

NA Wahine is an Autonomous group of women recovering in Narcotics Anonymous that meet annually to renew our Spiritual Connection.

Brief History

One woman from Waimea spoke with another woman in Hilo about the lack of women having a venue or event for recovery. It was decided to have a retreat which began at Kalopa State Park in 2002.

The idea for the name was chosen by the Waimea woman (NA Wahine) as a play on words for women in recovery. NA (The), Wahine (Woman), as NA is the acronym for Narcotics Anonymous.

“In keeping with the spirit of NAWS Bulletin 18 (special interest meetings) we continue to seed ourselves and donate to Region or Area as dictated by our group conscience.”

The event is held annually on the Big Island of Hawai'i, service positions are not limited to that geographic area. Any woman, who meets the qualifications of the desired position and is able to carry out that duty may serve, once voted in.
